

What do we do?

We look for organizations and individuals who are doing wonderful things for their community and people in need. We find them and highlight their works on our show. That's right, if you are helping people or doing something amazing in your community, we will find you. We have skills! We also highlight celebrities, such as on air personalities, actors and actresses and community leaders.

We also help organizations raise funds by promoting and/or hosting their events such as virtual galas and soirees. We also provide a platform for these organizations to share information about their programs, needs such as soliciting for volunteers and fundraising.
